

STARWEAVER

by Jamie Homsby and Ellen Graham

a Madness of Two production

AUDITION CALLOUT

We're looking for female or femme presenting actors with a playing age of 25-40 to submit a self-tape audition for the role of:

TERRA RANOS' head of military operations. A tough cookie who takes no prisoners. Wry. Mischievous. Big hearted, though she tries to hide it.

ABOUT THE SHOW

Starweaver is a gritty and gripping new science-fiction play from the award-winning theatre makers at Madness of Two. Following Cato, an A.I. engineer turned revolutionary, Starweaver grapples with the difficulties of overthrowing an unfair system, diving headfirst into a world of unfettered capitalism, revolution, entropy, memory, chaos and, ultimately, hope.

Starweaver is part of State Theatre Company South Australia's 2024 Stateside season, and is supported by Flinders University, the Australian Writers' Guild, Arts South Australia, Creative Australia and Jopuka Productions.

THE DETAILS

Rehearsals 20th May - 24th June
Performances 25th June - 6th July
The Void, Flinders University Drama Centre

Remuneration MEAA Award rates (7 weeks)

If you'd like to audition for this role, please submit your details at <https://form.jotform.com/240792858464066>, and we'll be in touch if you're selected to submit a self-tape.

Deadline for EOIs: March 30th

Shortlist notified: March 31st

Self tapes due: April 6th

We appreciate the time and dedication it takes to submit for open calls like this - thank you in advance!